ORDERS & DELIVERY

1. Every dish is made from scratch on the day of delivery using the finest, local, seasonal produce.
2. Minimum order time is two days. Orders should be received before 4pm two days before intended day of delivery.
3. Orders can be submitted by telephone, e-mail and facsimile.
4. Delivery is 6 days a week (Monday to Saturday).
5. Standard delivery time is 12.00—14.00 and 15.30—19.00 for office lunches, and home food, respectively.
6. One large order can be split for delivery through the week. Please specify the delivery days when placing the order.
7. Specific delivery times, and locations, can be accommodated by prior arrangement.
8. Minimum order value of £60; items can be specified for delivery on certain days for that week.
9. Delivery is free within EH1, EH2, EH3, EH4, EH5, EH6, EH7, EH9, EH10, EH11 and EH12. For addresses outside this zone, an extra charge will apply.
10. Orders will be delivered in ceramic crockery and serving dishes, which can go straight into the oven, unless disposable containers are requested.
11. There is a small, refundable, deposit for the servingware and cool bags.
12. Additional items, such as linen, crockery, cutlery, glassware and servingware can be obtained.
13. Bespoke menus can be created at the request of the client, and in discussion with the Chef Director.
14. All dietary requirements can be catered for, and must be notified at the time of placing the order.
15. Special dietary regimens can also be accommodated, and must be agreed in advance. A nutritionist is available to discuss and create an eating plan if a particular diet regimen is to be followed for any length of time.
